

Important technical note relating to this unit

Common issues for charging problems

In some cases the ECU/PCM has corrupted software, the application will run on emergency program.

An ECU upgrade via main dealer software may be required