REN103 - Old design

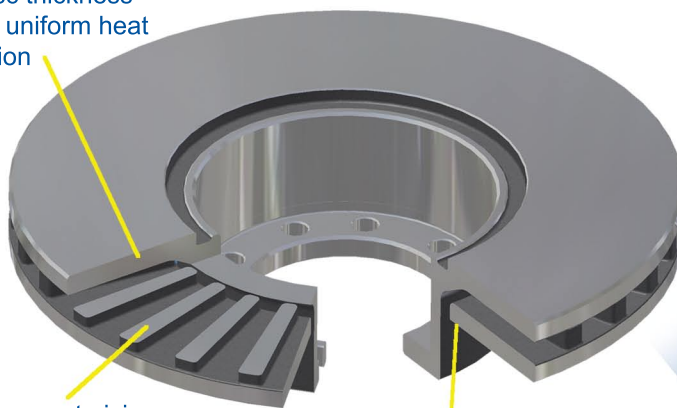

REN116 - Intermediate design

Even disc thickness
creating uniform heat
distribution

Narrow vent

Intermittent
vent gaps

Thicker vent giving added strength making it less prone to warping

Increased vent gap, across whole diameter of disc, thus creating greater airflow

REN172 - New design

This new design
improves the airflow
and heat distribution, making the disc less likely to crack under severe conditions

New "DIAMOND" shaped pillar vent to substantially increase airflow

Evenly distributed vents giving greater support to the braking surface, reducing the risk of high spots
